Camp FAR Out

Creative Arts Inclusion Camp

FAR Therapeutic Arts and Recreation is a nonprofit organization that provides creative arts therapy and recreation services for children and adults with cognitive, physical and/or emotional impairments.

We would like to extend an invitation to volunteers for Camp FAR Out, a two-week creative arts camp held at FAR's location, First Presbyterian Church Birmingham. This camp, for children and teens with special needs and their siblings, will be held Monday–Friday, July 30th–August 10th from 9:00–11:30 a.m. While experience working with individuals with special needs is helpful, a required orientation will be held to provide you with the necessary training. To begin the application process or for additional information about Camp FAR Out, please contact Sara at camp@FAR-therapy.org. Volunteer applications are also available online at www.FAR-therapy.org
